

Exp. Date:
Serial No.:

Directions: Shake well and use immediately. See carton for complete directions and precautions. Colostrum should be fed to the animal prior to administration of Bar-Guard-99™ antibody product.

Dosage: Calves: Using aseptic technique, administer 10 mL orally as soon as possible after birth. For optimal results, Bar-Guard-99 should be administered within 12 hours after birth and preferably within 6 hours of birth. Bar-Guard-99 may also be administered within 8 hours of exposure, not to exceed 20 hours of age.

Escherichia Coli Antibody

Equine Origin

Bar-Guard-99™

For Oral Use Only

5 Dose/50 mL

Lambs: Using aseptic technique, administer 2 mL orally as soon as possible after birth. Bar-Guard-99 should be administered within 12 hours after birth and preferably within 6 hours of birth. Contains cresol as a preservative. Anaphylactoid reactions may occur.

Antidote: Epinephrine.

Boehringer Ingelheim
Vetmedica, Inc.
St. Joseph, MO 64506 U.S.A.
U.S. Veterinary License No. 124
Code: 108-121 408107N-00

Boehringer
Ingelheim